

Coding Blocks (Bit By Bit Club)

PRESENTS

- Bit By Bit takes pride in organising impactful, student-centric technical events, and this edition is no exception. We are excited to introduce Tech Carnival — a 2+2 day Hackathon Series built around real industry problems, structured mentorship, and a grand offline finale.
- The event is designed in a 2 Online + 2 Offline format: three focused online days for speaker sessions, PPT presentations, and Top 12 shortlisting; followed by one grand offline day for prototype demonstrations, final judging, and prize distribution. With a total budget of ₹18,500 and no external sponsorship, the event is built lean but designed to feel grand.

Event Details

- Event Name: Tech Carnival — 3+2 Hackathon Series
- Organised By: Bit By Bit Club, VIT Bhopal University
- Format: 2 Days Online + 2 Days Offline
- Online Days: Day 2, Day 3 — via Google Meet/Zoom
- Offline Day: Day 1 and Day 4 — AB02 Audi-02, 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM
- Total Budget: ₹ 18,500
- Prizes: Trophies, Medals and Guddies for Winners
- Hackathon Finals: Top 12 teams shortlisted by Day 3, present working prototype on Day 4.

Event Aim:

- To give students a structured platform to build real solutions, present confidently, and compete under genuine industry scrutiny.
- To bring real industry professionals into the student experience through speaker sessions, live judging, and direct Q&A..
- To normalise building under pressure, presenting live, and receiving hard feedback — all in a peer-driven, supportive environment.
- To demonstrate that a well-structured hackathon can be executed on a lean ₹20,000 budget without sacrificing quality or experience.

- To provide a genuine launchpad — the best ideas from Tech Carnival may grow beyond the event itself.

Event Format — 2+2 Structure:

- Day 0 (Online Conference) - Scientist/ISRO/DRDO etc Related
- Day 1 (Offline — 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM): Speaker Sessions + Problem Statement Reveal + Hackathon Rules Briefing + PPT Submission Deadline midnight.
- Day 2 (Online): PPT Presentation Round — Same industry speaker acts as judge — Live Q&A judging — Scores compiled.
- Day 3 (Online): PPT Presentation Round — Live Q&A judging — Scores compiled.
- Day 4 (Offline — 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM): Grand Finale — Prototype Presentations + Final Judging + Prize Distribution + Felicitation + Club Session

Judging Rubric:

The same industry speaker judges both Day 3 (PPT Round), Day 4 (PPT Round) and Day 5 (Final Prototype Round). Scores from both rounds are combined for the final result.

Day 2 — PPT Presentation Round (50 points)

- Problem Clarity (10 pts): Is the problem real, specific, and well-defined? Does the team understand who faces it?
- Solution Relevance (15 pts): Does the solution directly address the problem? Is the approach logical and feasible?
- Technical Implementation (15 pts): Is there real technical effort? Is the prototype partially or fully functional?
- Presentation Quality (10 pts): Is the PPT clear, structured, and professional?

Day 3 — PPT Presentation Round (50 points)

- Problem Clarity (10 pts): Is the problem real, specific, and well-defined? Does the team understand who faces it?
- Solution Relevance (15 pts): Does the solution directly address the problem? Is the approach logical and feasible?
- Technical Implementation (15 pts): Is there real technical effort? Is the prototype partially or fully functional?
- Presentation Quality (10 pts): Is the PPT clear, structured, and professional?

Day 4 (offline) — Final Prototype Round (50 points)

- Live Demo Success (20 pts): Does the prototype run live? Partial credit if it fails gracefully with a clear fallback.
- Innovation and Real Impact (15 pts): Is the idea novel? Would the solution make a real difference if deployed?
- Depth of Build (10 pts): Is there genuine technical depth beyond the basic concept?
- Q&A Response (5 pts): Can the team clearly explain their approach, decisions, and next steps?

Engagement Activities (Bonus Points)

Tech & Fun Games Section

- Participants can take part in interactive games (technical + fun challenges).

(Multiple games = multiple chances to earn points)

Speaker Session Participation

Attending and actively engaging in speaker sessions:

- Standard Attendance: 5 points (online + offline session only)

Awards and Recognition:

All prizes are funded from registration revenue. No sponsorship. Winners announced live at the Day 4 closing ceremony.

- 1st Place: Highest combined score (Day 2 + Day 3+ Day 5). Cash prize from registration fund + Certificate + Internship + Trophy/medals
- 2nd Place: Second highest combined score. Cash prize from registration fund + Certificate + Trophy/medals
- Best Innovation Award: SURPRISE — not announced in advance. Most creative approach. Decided by the judge. Revealed at ceremony.
- Best Pitch Award: Most compelling and confident PPT presentation on Day 3. Judged separately.
- Participation Certificates: Digital certificate for all registered participants. Printed certificates for Top 12 teams and all award winners.

Rules and Guidelines:

For Participants:

- Registration is required to attend any day of the event.

- Hackathon teams must be formed before the Day 1 problem reveal. No team changes after domain selection.
- All solutions must be built by the team — no pre-built templates submitted as original work.
- PPT of maximum 10 slides must be submitted via Google Form by midnight on Day 1. No late submissions accepted.
- Only Top 12 shortlisted teams present in the Day 5 Final Round. All other teams are welcome as audience.
- Respectful behaviour with speakers, judges, and fellow participants is mandatory at all times.

For Judges:

- Score Day 3 and Day 4 (PPT) and Day 5 (Prototype) rounds independently — no cross-round influence.
- Provide specific, genuine Q&A questions during Day 5 — not generic feedback.
- Do not share scores or preferences with participants before the Day 5 ceremony.
- All judge scorecards submitted to the organiser team immediately after each round ends.

Best Regards,
Team Bit By Bit
